

Computer History Told

Council to Purchase New System

BY PAM TROBOY

City Council members took a look back Monday evening before continuing with their plans for a new computer system.

Dick Snider of Alexander, Grant and Co., the firm which is projecting the city's computer needs for the future, reviewed Plano's experiences with the existing computer system.

After noting that there have been several failures of both hardware and software, Snider outlined the programs still computerized.

Utility billing and payroll are the only two functions being accomplished in house at the present time, he said. Tax billing is handled by a service company, IPC.

Minimal budgetary accounting is obtained from Octal and police statistics are kept up on the McKinney system. Vehicle maintenance is monitored by a national program, Mainstem.

Snider strongly recommended that all but vehicle maintenance be put on the city's new computer when it goes into operation.

The council also discussed the library's computer needs with the Library Board. President Bob Goodman told the council that unless the library can go "on-line," a computer will be no improvement.

With an on-line system, the library would be able to determine at check out whether the patron had any overdue books. Long-range savings with the quick check are estimated up to $100,000-plus.

Goodman also noted that a better book inventory can be maintained with an on-line system. He pointed out that a computer will be needed to keep track of books when the L.E.R. Schimelpfenig Public Library is opened. With a computer, the board believes that duplication of volumes can be minimized.

An anticipated project of the North East Texas Library Assn. will also reduce the start up cost. The association plans to put the catalogues of every library participating in inter-library loan on a computer system.

Plano can purchase its inventory already recorded on magnetic tape for only $200 compared to a projected cost of $10,000, if done as part of the city's program.

The board also recommended three architects to be considered for the Schimelpfenig Library. After interviewing representatives of seven firms, the building committee selected Fisher and Spillman, William H. Hidell and Pratt, Box, Henderson & Partners as the most able firms.

Goodman said the board's first choice was Fisher and Spillman. President Pat Spillman who specializes in libraries designed the Dallas Lakewood Branch and the College of Fine Arts Library at the University of Texas at Austin (under construction). The firm is currently designing the Dallas Public Library-Central Research Library and the Tyler Public Library.

A close second was Hidell who designed the Dallas Casa View Branch and the Dallas Audelia Branch. The board noted that Hidell was highly recommended for on site inspection of each operation.

The board's third choice was commended for its innovative approach to buildings. The firm has no public library experience but is the architect for Brookhaven College which is nearing completion. The college includes a 43,000 square foot learning center. Other projects the firm has done include Olla Podrida, Dallas Market Center, The Quadrangle and Greenhill School.

In other action the council viewed a film of the Lubbock tornado and its emergency operations center. Civil Defense Director Ernest Reich said he has prepared a draft proposal for an emergency operations center and stressed the need to include such a center in Plano's new city hall.

In the interim, he recommended that the Police and Courts Bldg. be used as an EOC because of the communications available.

The staff was asked to review the draft and make recommendations to the council, but all members indicated a willingness to establish an EOC.

One Is Better Than Two For Routine Police Patrol

By KENNETH R. CLARK

United Press International

Starsky without Hutch? Pepper Anderson without Bill Crowley? The Lone Ranger without Tonto?

Better, safer — and cheaper — says much of the nation's law enforcement brass in support of a recent Police Foundation study endorsing the concept of the one-man patrol car.

But for many a cop on the beat — especially where the beat winds through crime-ridden, inner-city jungles — the idea of going it alone is a chilling prospect.

"There's no way that's true," a Chicago district sergeant who asked not to be quoted by name, said of the study. "Maybe in Mayberry, N.C., where nothing ever happens, a one-man car would be okay, but not here in Chicago where you never know what you're going to find when you get to the next job."

In Pittsburgh, Patrolman Jim Malloy agreed.

"Statistics have proved that more officers are killed in the line of duty working one-man cars than two," he said. "Plus ... there is a greater degree of hesitancy on the part of a one-man car to become involved.

Salt Lake City Assistant Police Chief Gary Parke wrote off Malloy's argument.

"Two policemen have a habit of talking to one another instead of paying attention," he said. "They get lackadaisical. If he (the solo officer) is alone, he stays alert and protects himself."

At the core of the controversy is a 12-month study conducted in San Diego. It concluded police officers are just as safe, if not safer, working alone as they are making the rounds with a partner.

The report's real music to the ears of administrators in financially hard-pressed cities, however, dealt with economics.

Police Foundation President Patrick Murphy said the study uncovered potentially huge savings with discovery that 18 single-officer patrols cost less than 10 paired patrols.

Portland, Ore., Police Chief Bruce Baker described two-man patrols as "economically unfeasible and operationally not required," and in Washington, D.C., where the police force has been cut 20 per cent in the past four years, Police Public Information Officer Chuck Collins said, "in most cases the one-man unit is more efficient because the wide majority of police work is in non-emergency type calls."

Advocates of the solo police patrol contend modern communications technology can have a back-up car at the scene in minutes should trouble erupt, but for the officer whose life potentially is on the line, those minutes could spell eternity.

A New York City police officer who once drove a beat in Harlem and who asked not to be identified is one of those.

"You hit areas in the south Bronx or Manhattan north, or maybe East New York in Brooklyn and there's no way," he said. "You just don't have a fistfight down there. You're dealing with people with guns. I've waited two minutes for help and it seemed like days."

Burglaries, Vandalism Reported This Weekend

The Trading Post and POWER Inc. were burglarized this weekend.

The business on Dallas North Pkwy. was entered sometime Saturday night and an undetermined amount of cash was taken.

About $2,500 in damages were done to a home under construction Sunday. Owned by M.E. Morgan Co., the house at 3011 W. 15th sustained paint and varnish damage.

In other activity, police recovered a television and some stereo equipment, took five reports of criminal mischief and investigated five thefts, four residential burglaries, two motor vehicle burglaries and two motorcycle thefts.

Officers answered 172 calls for assistance and arrested 10 persons. Those arrested included a 28-year-old man and a 24-year-old woman for growing marijuana, a 21-year-old and a 20-year-old for public intoxication, a 27-year-old, a 20-year-old and a 35-year-old on out of town warrants, a 47-year-old for shoplifting, a 22-year-old for no drivers license and a 17-year-old for driving while intoxicated and possession of marijuana.

Commissioners Fail in Quorum, Hearings Reslated

Planning and Zoning Commissioners were unable to meet as planned Monday night.

Three of the commissioners were out of town and no quorum was available for the regular session. A special meeting will be called later this week to review site plans and plats on the agenda. Public hearings will be rescheduled for the next regular meeting on June 20.

City Fathers Honor Founding Mother

The founder of Plano's first free public lending library has been honored by the City Council.

The new library to be built at Custer Rd. and Spring Creek will be named for L.E.R. Schimelpfenig, council members agreed Monday night. The city's second library is slated for construction next year.

One of the earliest supporters of women's rights, Louise Ernestine Rammers Schimelpfenig founded a Juvenile Missionary and Aid Society for girls of all denominations between the ages of 8 and 16.

One of the objectives of the group formed on June 22, 1884, was to "entertain ourselves by reading, reciting and singing...."

To encourage the girls to read, Mrs. Schimelpfenig made the books from her personal library available to them. She kept a list of the books the girls read with a list of the books in her library. These original records have been preserved by her daughter Mrs. A.R. Schell Jr.

Her collection of about 128 books was numbered and divided according to age levels. The service became so popular that she added Wednesday afternoons to the regular Sunday afternoons and invited everyone in the community to check out books.

In addition to her library work, Mrs. Schimelpfenig devoted a great deal of time to her church and took an active part in the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

She attended national and international conventions of the WCTU and was vice president and recording secretary of the Texas chapter.

Because of a voluminous correspondence with leaders of the temperance movement all over the world, she always signed her name L.E.R. Schimelpfenig to give her identity as an individual.

Born Louise Ernestine Rammers on March 4, 1857, in Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Schimelpfenig was unusually well educated for a woman of that day and time.

The graduate of Science Hill School in Shelbyville, Ky., married Fred Schimelpfenig in 1876. The young couple emigrated to Texas in 1878 and settled in Plano.

Mr. Schimelpfenig owned and operated a large general store for many years as well as taking an active part in Plano civic and church circles. He was at one time Mayor of Plano.

The Schimelpfenigs reared a family of eight sons and daughters and an adopted daughter.

Escapee, Drug King Arrested in Irving

IRVING, Tex. (UPI) — Convicted or accused of crimes in four states, including murder and attempted murder, prison escapee Tom Lester Pugh had developed a reputation among law enforcement officers.

Still, when police arrested him and another man Monday, he failed to use the gun he was carrying.

"This guy has a propensity to wipe out folks," a Dallas FBI spokesman said. "He's really a bad guy and I don't know why he's not in our top 10. He's the kind that always makes it. He is unbelievable. He'd just as soon kill you as look at you."

Even when he was in prison, Pugh, 39, did not stop his activities. Police said before he and a companion escaped last October from the Kentucky prison at Eddyville, Pugh set up a drug-smuggling operation in the five state prisons.

Police and FBI agents recaptured Pugh and Thomas Eugene Cawthron, 26, without firing a shot. The FBI said Pugh pulled a pistol from his clothing but did not use it.

Irving police Sgt. Richard Langton said the arrests were made from information supplied by informants. The FBI refused to elaborate, saying "he could hurt somebody. He's already killed three witnesses."

Pugh was wanted in Oklahoma,

Arizona, Texas and Kentucky. The Oklahoma charges included the attempted murder of Tulsa District Judge Fred Nelson by bombing his car, and the murder of three persons who testified against him.

Kentucky deputy warden L.T. Brown said Pugh started a $1 million a year narcotics ring in Arizona, California, Missouri, Oklahoma and Kentucky prisons by using the mails to smuggle drugs in from Mexico and Central America.

The FBI said Pugh and Cawthron would be extradited to Kentucky but police said the escapees first would be charged with possession of firearms in Irving and aggravated robbery in Dallas.

A former resident of Glenpool, Okla., Pugh was serving 25-30 years for the Arizona armed robbery of the late Tulsa oilman Robert A. LaFortune Sr., father of Tulsa Mayor Robert LaFortune.

Pugh was tried and convicted in Arizona, but because he was considered a trouble maker, he was transferred to a Missouri prison. Because he caused trouble at the Missouri prison, he was sent to the Kentucky prison, where he escaped.

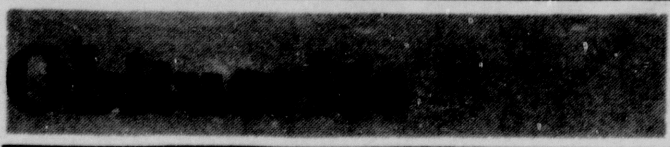

Information supplied by District Attorney S.M. Fallis was partially responsible for Pugh's apprehension.

Book Talk

Bob Goodman and other members of the Library Board, left, Monday night recommended that the library use an on-line computer system. Goodman who is president of the board explained that an on-line system would save the city money in the long run because book loss could be substantially reduced. He also asked that the computer be programmed to notify the library when the water department received notice to cut off utility service to a resident. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Air Conditioning and your electric bill.

The summer months in Texas are that time when the largest factor in most electric bills is operation of air conditioning equipment. On the average, air conditioning accounts for about half of summertime bills.

The most important single factor in holding down the cost of air conditioning is insulation.

Replace missing or worn weather stripping around door and window openings. Caulk around the outside of doors and windows where the frames meet the walls.

Keep fireplace dampers closed when not in use. Close blinds or drapes to block out direct sunlight.

Keep furniture and draperies away from air outlets and returns. Clean grills often.

Check filters every 30 days. If you have the permanent type, clean them by manufacturer's directions; if they're the disposable type, replace them when they're dirty.

Have your air conditioning equipment checked seasonally by a qualified serviceman.

Set the thermostat on 78°, or higher. Turn equipment off if you will be away from home for several days or longer.

Houseplant

Seldom Has Fruit
LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Growing your own coffee plant won't help beat the high cost of java, but it can provide an attractive house plant.

Extension horticulturist Don Steinegger says such plants seldom flower or fruit in a home environment in the United States.

Even if they did, you'd need a lot of plants to produce enough coffee berries to make the project worthwhile. Steinegger, who is with the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, said the crimson berries that develop from fragrant white flowers contain only two coffee beans apiece.

He said coffee plants grow best in an atmosphere of high humidity, warm temperatures and bright light and sun. Ideally, they need 80-85 degrees Fahrenheit during the day and 62-65 degrees at night.

Standard houseplant potting soil is suitable, Steinegger said. It should be kept moderately moist, watered when the soil surface begins to dry out and fertilized with a standard houseplant fertilizer (as its label directs) every month or two.

Here's Something

To Yawn About

CHICAGO (UPI) — Napping is good for you. Done properly, research indicates, it improves business performance, increases a feeling of well-being and reduces anxiety.

The University of Chicago Circle Campus has established a special nap room to enable 50 to 60 students a day to catch from 40 winks to two or three hours' deep sleep daily in dark and quiet surroundings.

Studies by Dr. Frederick J. Evans of the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital and the University of Pennsylvania showed that students who napped did better on complex mathematical problems afterwards.

Other findings reported by a mattress company here:

Short naps are as good as long ones, but only if you make a habit of it. People who rarely nap generally will feel groggier and worse after a nap than the habitual napper.

Habitual nappers don't lay awake nights because they nap during the day. The latter is a restorative, the researchers said. It enables the napper to fall asleep more easily at night and sleep more soundly.

Serious Fire Hits

Each Generation

FARMINGTON, Conn. (UPI) — The average family will experience one serious fire every generation.

This conclusion was reached by a manufacturer of safety and security devices who analyzed national fire figures.

The odds triple for a family that has children, parents and grandparents sharing a home, the manufacturer said. About 7,000 persons die annually in residential fires.

Research shows most die not from heat or flames, but from lack of oxygen or the hot gases or air or smoke caused by fires. Heat is the fifth killer.

According to Emhart Corp. experts, 75 per cent of the victims of home fires die at night, and up to 60 per cent could be saved by the early warning feature of smoke detectors or alarms. About 100 brands are currently on the market in the United States.

EAT! EAT!

NEW YORK (UPI) —

Unless he is overweight, there's no need for alarm when a child eats more than his mother. The Dairy Council of Metropolitan New York says a typical boy of 12 needs about one and a half times as many calories as a mother in her late 30s. Among other things, a child needs three to four glasses of milk daily, compared with the two needed by adults. Cheese, yogurt and other dairy products help meet these goals.

National League Roundup

Cubs Club Dodgers

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Suddenly the Chicago Cubs are beginning to look like solid contenders and the Los Angeles Dodgers a bit shaky.

The Cubs got a big break Monday when the eventual decisive run in a 3-1 triumph over the Dodgers was scored with the help of a wind-blown 60-foot single by Bobby Murcer. Then Bruce Sutter came out of the bullpen, after Rick Reuschel wild-pitched a run home in the seventh inning, to pitch 2 2-3 shutout innings and receive credit for his 16th save.

"That (the wind-blown single) was the big play of the game," said Manager

Tom Lasorda of the Dodgers. "It changed the complexion of the game. But that's part of the elements and you can't do anything about the elements."

Murcer singled home the Cubs' final run in the eighth as the Cubs saddled Burt Hooton with his third setback.

In other NL games, San Francisco defeated Pittsburgh, 3-1, in 12 innings. St. Louis beat San Diego, 4-3, in 10 innings. Montreal topped Atlanta, 4-2, and Philadelphia downed Houston, 9-5. Cincinnati at New York was rained out.

American League scores were: Baltimore 5,

Milwaukee 2; Boston 1, Kansas City 0; New York 9, Texas 2; Chicago 9, Minnesota 5; Detroit 8, California 0, and Cleveland 3, Oakland 1.

Giants 3, Pirates 1:

Consecutive doubles by pinch hitter Darrell Evans and Mike Sadek drove in two runs in the top of the 12th and earned reliever Gary Lavelle his fifth win. Pittsburgh had tied the score at 1-1 in the ninth when Al Oliver doubled and eventually scored on an infield out. Rich Gossage was the loser.

Cards 4, Padres 3:

Keith Hernandez' single with one out in the 10th inning capped a two-run rally as St. Louis snapped a four-game losing streak. Lou Brock singled to start the rally and stole second for his 874th career theft before scoring on Garry Templeton's single. Tony Scott sacrificed and Ted Simmons was intentionally walked before Hernandez' single.

Expos 4, Braves 2:

Montreal ran off its fourth straight win behind the five-hit pitching of Jackie Brown and with the help of Gary Carter's 10th homer. Brown walked four and struck out four in addition to contributing a run-scoring single as he raised his record to 2-4. Biff Pocoroba homered for the Braves.

Phillies 9, Astros 5:

Rich Hebner knocked in four runs with two homers and a sacrifice fly for Philadelphia in a game shortened to six innings by rain. The Phillies scored three runs in the first inning on hits by Mike Schmidt and Greg Luzinski and a sacrifice fly by Hebner and added two runs in the third on Hebner's two-run homer.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (UPI) — With a 2-3 record, only one complete game and no starts in nearly two weeks, there may have been some who doubted Jim "Catfish" Hunter was worth all the money George Steinbrenner is paying him.

The doubters, however, did not include New York Yankee catcher Thurmon Munson.

It's like I've been telling you all along, if there's one guy who'll come back, it'll be Catfish," Munson said following the Yankees 9-2 win over the Texas Rangers Monday night. "He doesn't like to be mediocre."

Hunter, making his first start since May 27, was anything but mediocre, hurling a six hitter and showing fine control in walking only one batter. The Yankee pitcher had only bad inning—the seventh—when he gave a two-run double to Mike Hargrove after Willie Horton reached on a wild pitch third strike and Toby Harrah singled.

Aside from that Hunter, who has been plagued by arm miseries was his old self.

"I knew my arm was all right when it didn't hurt in warmup," Hunter said. "I figured I could spot the ball."

"I had good control; my slider moved well and I got my fastball into different spots."

Power hitter Reggie Jackson provided Hunter with all the support he needed, blasting a solo home run in the second and a two-run shot in the sixth. The home runs were the 10th and 11th of the year for Jackson.

"Reggie changed bats at Chicago and he's a little bit more relaxed at the plate," Yankee manager Billy Martin said.

Run-scoring doubles by Carlos May, Mickey Rivers and Willie Randolph plus a wild pitch by Texas reliever Darold Knowles gave the Yankees four more runs in the seventh. Randolph also homered for New York in the ninth.

But Martin, who has had his share of problems this year both with his high-priced players on the field and a strong-willed front office, was most pleased with Hunter's performance on the mound.

"I liked what I saw tonight. He had good velocity and control," Martin said. "He only threw 103 pitches. He looked like he did not opening day. He had that good fastball."

So Is 'Catfish'

'The Bird' Is Back

By BILL MADDEN
UPI Sports Writer

"The Bird" and "The Catfish" are back.

Monday night, it was like old times for Mark "The Bird" Fidrych and Jim "Catfish" Hunter, both of whom benefitted from hefty batting support to gain long-awaited victories.

Fidrych, who tore a cartilage in his left knee in spring training and was disabled until May 24, hurled the Detroit Tigers to a seven-hit, 8-0 triumph over the California Angels for his first victory of the season.

Hunter, bothered by arm trouble sporadically this season, made his first start since May 27 and pitched the New York Yankees to a 9-2 victory over the Texas Rangers.

"Hunter's effort didn't surprise me," said Yankee catcher Thurman Munson. "It's like I've been saying all along, if there's one guy who will come back, it'll be Catfish. He doesn't like to be mediocre."

Hunter, now 2-3, spaced six hits and got all the run support he needed from his old Oakland A's teammate

Reggie Jackson, who belted a pair of home runs for three RBI.

Fidrych also was treated to a big lead in getting back in the winning groove. Jason Thompson drove home four runs for the Tigers, three of them with his ninth homer of the season in the fifth inning.

"...You need that one win to get ahead," said Fidrych, who struck out six and walked just one. "...These guys made sure I'd win, they weren't gonna leave me with just two or three runs."

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore put away Milwaukee, 5-2, Chicago outlasted Minnesota, 9-5, in 12 innings, Boston shaded Kansas City, 1-0, and Cleveland tripped Oakland, 3-1.

Over in the National League it was San Francisco 3, Pittsburgh 1; Chicago 3, Los Angeles 1; St. Louis 4, San Diego 3; Montreal 3, Atlanta 2; Philadelphia 9, Houston 5. Cincinnati at New York was rained out.

White Sox 9, Twins 5:

Oscar Gamble capped a four-run two-out, 12th-inning rally with a three-run homer enabling Chicago to move to within one game of first-place Minnesota in the AL West. Richie Zisk drove in the first run of winning rally with his fourth single of the game.

Ortola 5, Brewers 2:

Lee May blasted his seventh home run in eight games and Rudy May fired a five-hitter to pace Baltimore. May's homer, a two-run shot in the fourth, gave him 19 RBI in the last eight games — all on the road.

Red Sox 1, Royals 0:

Carl Yastrzemski's ninth home run in the seventh inning was the game's lone score. Luis Tiant, who like Hunter and Fidrych, has been struggling for a win of late, went seven innings to gain his third before yielding to Bill Campbell.

Indians 3, A's 1:

Larvell Blanks drove in two runs with a bases-loaded eighth inning single for the winning Cleveland runs. Reliever Jim Kern choked off an Oakland rally in the bottom of the eighth to preserve Pat Dobson's first win after five losses.

Sports Briefs

Bengals Sign Voight

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Bengals have signed University of North Carolina running back Mike Voight, Paul Brown, general manager of the club announced.

Voight, a third-round draft choice, was the Atlantic Coast Conference Player-of-the-Year in 1975 and 1976. He is the North Carolina and ACC rushing record-holder with 3,971 career yards.

Wichita State, the Seattle Seahawks' 10th-round choice in last month's college draft, has signed with the NFL club, team officials announced Monday.

Previously signed were center John Yarno, a fourth-round selection from Idaho; running back David Sims, a seventh-round choice from Georgia Tech; and defensive tackle I.V. Wilson, a 12th-round pick from Tulsa.

England Whalers' all-time leader in goals, assists and total points, has signed a multiyear contract with the World Hockey Association Club.

"Tom is currently among the top scorers in the WHA and his return, plus the addition of Mark Howe and Greg Carroll, gives the Whalers' offense much more clout," said Jack Kelley, director of hockey operations, in making the announcement Monday.

Webster, 28, will be starting his sixth season with the Whalers this fall.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dennis Eckersley was named Monday the American League Player of the Week for the week ending June 5.

Eckersley began with a 1-0 no-hitter over California and finished up the week by nearly breaking a 73-year-old major league record held by Cy Young for consecutive hitless innings. For the week, the Cleveland right-hander hurled 15 innings, had 15 strikeouts and posted a 0.60 ERA. He is now 6-3 with a 2.87 earned-run-average.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Former Los Angeles Laker basketball star Tommy Hawkins and Olympic decathlon gold medalist Bruce Jenner will preside over a luncheon Wednesday kicking off the 10th annual Watts Summer Games.

Preliminary events for the games will be June 18-19 at various high schools and the finals will be June 24-26 at Cal State Los Angeles.
